Show Rules

1. The show is sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association and its rules shall govern. There will be a Senior Buck Show. (3) They are sanctioned for the Nigerian Dwarf Dairy Goat only. These shows are separately sanctioned. The base date for computing the age of the animal entered is April 25, 2026.
2. DO NOT UNLOAD YOUR GOATS BEFORE CHECK-IN. There is a CVI requirement to show for any herd traveling from out of state. Any herds exhibiting signs of disease will not be allowed to show. Show committee has the final decision regarding the health of goats. Exhibitors are individually responsible for following all state regulated health certificate requirements. This WILL be enforced.
3. The original registration certificate is required for all animals. A stamped duplicate will be accepted according to ADGA's regulations at the time of the show.
4. Animals with natural horns may not be shown.
5. Check-in will begin at 7:00 AM on Saturday. Goats MUST be on the grounds by 8:00 AM. Judging will begin at 8:30 AM SHARP. Proof of animal's ownership is the name on the registration certificate or stamped duplicate and a CVI are required. The show is rain or shine.
6. Please respect the property and property owner's privacy. Pens are provided. Straw/shavings are not provided. You may show out of your truck/trailer/personal pen(s). Areas MUST BE CLEANED before leaving.
7. Show property owners or affiliates will NOT be responsible for loss, damage, or accident to any person or property. Show entry/attendance indicates acceptance of this.
8. Dogs or any other pets are not permitted on the grounds.
9. Classes are not capped. Entries without payment within 24 hours WILL BE REMOVED.
10. Hand sanitizing stations will be available around the ring for exhibitors to regularly sanitize.

11. To ensure the show ends at a reasonable time and runs efficiently, judges will give reasons for the top 5 animals in each class. Exhibitors who would like more information about the placings of their goats may ask questions at the completion of the show.
12. NO REFUNDS for scratched goats will be given.
13. Please be ringside and ready to show by the start of your goats' classes. If a goat is not ringside at the start of its class, the show will not wait. Please bring or request appropriate help for multiple goats and/or back to back classes.
14. The show committee reserves the right to make decisions/resolutions not directly addressed in these show rules or in ADGA's rules. The show committee's decision is final, with a unanimous vote.
15. Early entries will be accepted until midnight on the Tuesday before the show. Late entries will be accepted after this date until midnight Thursday before the show. No new entries will be accepted after midnight Thursday before the show. Substitutions can occur until check-in, however must be within the same class.
16. If an exhibitor refuses to abide by show rules, or causes conflict or disruption, they may be asked to leave the show. If an exhibitor is asked to leave the show, they will forfeit all entry and pen fees. Show Committee decision is final.
17. Submitting an entry indicates the exhibitor's acceptance to abide by all rules stated above.
